Islam is a threat to the way people think, act and feel

She also mentioned that Islamic propaganda is a constant battle in the west. It's not something that's going to stop any time soon. The battle to squash Islam is ever rising because Islam is a threat to the way people think, act and feel. The ignorant perpetuate the problem because thinking too hard about something is not easy for them. It's much easier to just go with the flow.

"If society tells us to like something, we like it, if society tells us to hate something, we hate it. Ignorance is a dark and heavy door that is difficult to open. I believe the best method or approach towards such mentalities propagating against Islam is through actions rather than through words. Although you must learn when to walk away, sometimes the battle is not worth it, some doors will never open. I have found my best results are through a gentle dawah. If you set good examples, for the ignorant, you show kindness to all people, smile, be patient and extend yourself even when it's not comfortable for you, people will ask who you are and what you believe. It's always so heart-warming when someone with closed eyes begins to finally open them."
